

Foreign press in Tralee for new website launch

A GROUP of international journalists will be arriving in Tralee this week for the launch of a new travel website.

The group of foreign press will be the guests of honour at a reception in the Tralee Bay Wetlands Centre on Wednesday evening.

Organised with the support of Tralee Chamber Alliance and Kerry County Council the event will see the launch of the new IrelandWays walking tourism website that includes the Tralee Dingle Kerry Camino route.